

CUHK
UNIVERSITY

Department of Accountancy Newsletter

會計學系
DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTANCY

April, 2020

New Minor Program

Minor in Law in Business (from 2020-21)

Law in business is a body of business-related laws, which sets the structure and procedure by which business is done. The purpose of the courses within the minor program is to prepare a student to think critically and analytically as a well-rounded person with fundamental legal knowledge in business.

To equip students with solid and fundamental legal knowledge in the business field, and satisfy the needs of students who are pursuing jobs and postgraduate studies in law-related area, a NEW minor named "law in business" is opened and the Department of Accountancy offers the majority of courses in the minor programme. We welcome all students from all majors to enroll in this minor!

Open to ALL undergraduates from all majors!

Wonderful courses offered in 2020-2021

- ACT4351 Taxation II
- ACT4001 Accounting Practicum
- CLC9020 Law in Everyday Life
- CLE9019 The legal System of the PRC
- CLE9002 Ethical Issues Facing Young Professionals

Department of Accountancy
Cluster Course
Term 1, 2020/21

Ethical Issues Facing Young Professionals
Course Code CLE9002

Course includes:

- Learn more about the different professions, such as medicine, law, journalism and medicine
- Explore the ethical principles behind the way modern professionals work
- Discover what is the "noble good" that professionals impart to society
- Understand the ethical dilemmas facing the various professions today
- Appreciate how professionalism is changing in the modern world

The Legal System of the People's Republic of China
★ CLE 9019
1st SEM 2020-2021

Dr. Han Ping Helen (Assistant Department)

Legal Institutions & Lawyers
Elite Institutions
The Courtroom
Comparison with HK
The Origin & Sources

Welcome to join
We're so interesting and useful elective courses!

Department of Accountancy
Term 1, 2020/21

ACT4001 Accounting Practicum

Course includes:

- Gain practical work experience in accounting
- Take the Accountancy Department's only "service learning" course
- Serve the community through your efforts
- Receive professional coaching, training and feedback

Research Achievement

23 December 2019
Professor Nancy Su Stands out in the ROAR World Rankings

Professor Nancy Su, who is the head of Department of Accountancy, ranked 42nd in the ROAR's comprehensive global ranking. There are only two professors from universities in HK ranked world's top 50, and Professor Su is one of them. Her RAST article of 2017 has topped 680 financial accounting articles.

Student Achievements/ Campus Life

Winner of the Sir Edward Youde Memorial Scholarship Joanne Cheung plans to start social enterprise to help the needy

Joanne Cheung Tsz-yan, a final year BBA student in Accounting, has won the Sir Edward Youde Memorial Scholarship for Undergraduate and Diploma Students 2019/20. The Award recognises her excellent academic performance and commitment to helping children with Special Educational Needs (SEN).

“I am honoured and surprised to receive the scholarship, because it’s a very prestigious award, and only six students in Hong Kong were selected this year,” Cheung said. “I am very grateful to my academic advisor, Prof Nancy Su, who nominated me for the scholarship — and eventually I got it.”

News of MAcc

11 Oct 2019 A group of MAcc students visited Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited (HKEx) Connect Hall.

10-14 Dec 2019 Students and alumni joined a 5-day Singapore Study Tour. They visited a big 4 CPA firm, a global logistics company, focusing on the last-mile solution, National Museum, etc.

13 Jan 2020 Students visited ICAC, attended a seminar titled "Ethics Legacy - Roles of Senior Management in Corporate Governance" and took a guided tour of its exhibition hall. It showcases a lot of the milestone corruption cases, which testified great anti-corruption strategies. The students also learned a lot about how ICAC develops to meet the evolving needs for HK.

Lingnan University 嶺南大學
Department of Accountancy

Teaching and Learning Enhancement Activities Series '2

Tax Planning: A Transfer Pricing Perspective
BEPS 2.0: Implications for Business

Speaker: Mr. William Wong
Date: 22 Apr 2020 (Wednesday)
Time: 10:00 – 11:30 am
Zoom Meeting URL: <https://lingnan.zoom.us/j/365427577>
ID: 863 627 577 Password: 206422

Bio/sketch:
Mr. William Wong is a Senior Tax Manager of a Big Four accounting firm in Hong Kong. Prior to his current position, he was a Tax Principal of an accounting firm and an International Tax Services Manager of another Big Four accounting firm. He specializes in providing China tax and Transfer Pricing services. He specializes in providing China tax and Transfer Pricing Services.

William has extensive experience in advising multinational clients on various types of cross-border tax advisory projects such as transfer pricing planning, supply chain planning, group restructuring and IPO tax advisory and tax due diligence services.

All are welcome
It is COMPULSORY for MAcc students to attend.

Enquiries: MAcc Programme Office Tel: 3618 8182 Email: maac@lnu.edu.hk

20 Jan 2020 Students attended the Business Communication Seminar by Mr. Allan Lee which is focused on job interview skills in accounting-related fields. Some students also participated in the mock interview, which benefited them a lot.

9 Apr 2020 Program Office arranges a series of Teaching and Learning Enhancement Activities in Term 2. A seminar, titled “How to prepare for a successful professional career” is conducted by Mr. Kenny Wei and his term members. Mr. Wei is a partner of EY’s Greater China transfer pricing team based in HK.

22 Apr 2020 Another seminar titled “Tax Planning: A transfer pricing perspective—BEPS 2.0: Implications for Business” will be arranged and conducted by Mr. William Wong, a Senior Tax Manager of a Big Four accounting firm in HK. Prior to this position, he was a Tax Principal of an accounting firm and an International Tax Services Manager of another Big Four accounting firm.