

Wetland Conservation GO!

Tertiary Eco-Ambassador Programme 2023

Wetlands are some of the most valuable ecosystems on Earth. Wetlands nurture rich biodiversity, and perform important functions such as climate regulation, carbon storage and sequestration, flood control, coastline protection, and water purification. Organised by Hong Kong Wetlands Conservation Association (HKWCA), "Wetland Conservation GO! Tertiary Eco-Ambassador Programme 2023", aims at raising the public knowledge and awareness of wetlands, thus promoting wetland conservation and fostering harmony of human and wetlands.
