A screenshot of the "Lingnan Student Early Alert System" interface. The page title is "Email Preview" and it shows the user is logged in. The main content is divided into two email preview sections. The first section, "Email #1 - to Student", shows an email title "Your academic progress: PLEASE READ" and recipients. The second section, "Email #3 - to all instructors who teach the student and Registry", shows an email title "The academic progress of a student you teach: PLEASE READ" and recipients. At the bottom of the second section, there is a table with one row: "Attendance" | "Your instructor has indicated that you have not been attending or arriving in class as regularly as expected during the first six weeks of this term and is concerned about your academic progress." Below the table, there is a note: "An email has been sent to the student to initiate a process to assist him/her. You do not have to take any action unless you want to share your views (for instructor only: Link to be generated) about this student." At the bottom right, there are two buttons: a grey "Back" button and a blue "Submit and Send Email" button. A red rounded rectangle highlights both buttons, and a red arrow points from the "Submit and Send Email" button towards the bottom of the page.

- To submit, click on 'Submit and Send Email' at the bottom of the 'Email Preview' page.
